

Channel City Camera Club Application for Web Site Linkage

The Channel City Camera Club (C4) has approved the ability for links to members' personal web sites from the club web site, www.cccameraclub.com . This linkage is subject to regulations designed to assure that the C4 website does not become a portal to sites inconsistent with the objectives of the C4. These regulations follow:

Member Web Site Regulations

1. The site shall be the member's site displaying photographic images and other information related to photography. The member's non-photographic related businesses and interests shall not appear on the site.
2. There shall be no third-party advertisements or links on the first page reached by clicking on the CCCC web site link.
3. The member may have a links page, including links to photography and arts related third party organizations. This links page shall be at least one click away from the page reached directly from the CCCC web site.
4. The member's web site may be a personal gallery or may be related to a photographic business carried on by the member.

In order to link your web site to the C4 web site please fill out the form below and return to the webmaster at webmaster@cccameraclub.com.

I would like a link on the C4 web site to my personal web site. I have read the C4 Member Web Site Regulations and agree to abide by these regulations and any amendments thereof adopted by the C4 Board of Directors. I understand that the webmaster may delete my link for any violations thereof or for failure to maintain my membership dues in a current status.
